BRYANT - GREENWELL — At Christ Church, South Kona, Hawaii, Septem-ber 6, 1894, by the Rev. S. H. Davis, Gerald K. Bryant, of Kipahulu, Maui, to Dora Caroline, eldest daughter of the late H. N. Greenwell.

The Australia's Passage.

The S. S. Australia, H. C. Houdlette commander, left San Francisco September 1, 1894, at 2 p. m. with 57 cabin and 17 steerage passengers, and 17 bags of mail. Experienced pleasant weather with light northerly winds throughout the voyage. Arrived at Honolulu September 8, at

We are not at all surprised at our increased trade-it's the goods and prices that have brought it all about. We have adopted the policy of quick sales and small profits effects held by Mr. Levey. It was one of the best sales of furniture -it's a first rate policy for both the buyer and seller. It means TRUE ECONOMY - which the Judge testifies is an exgood things need not be high cellent time keeper. Mr. Levey is justifiably proud of this beautiful priced.

There is a certain hard wall of facts and figures, however, that stands between possibility and prodigal promises. There are certain prices below which no good, honest article can be bought. Those prices are ours-if you pay less you will certainly get less. This is a plain statement worth remembering.

We don't know what got into the factory for they have sent us enough LADIES' SHIRT WAISTS to supply every lady on these Islands. We must get rid of them. Come in and take your pick. They all came on the last steamer and are new de-igns and patterns.

You are paying more for CURTAINS at the public auctions than we are asking. We have Nottinghams at $1.50. MADRAS, BULARION, RAW reviled. SILE, ORIENTAL, ANTIQUES, ETC., ETC., -we intend that they shall be sold, so now is a good time to buy them. The same advice will stand good at our Towels and Towel-LING, CRETONNES and FUR-was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and be imprisoned one month, and NITURE COVERINGS. Also our Comforters at $1.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

TO IMPROVE THEMSELVES.

The Young Hawaiians Complete Their Laudable Organization.

About forty young men, all mem-bers of the Young Hawaiians' Insti-tute, met in the Y. M. C. A. hall at 7:30 o'clock yesterday evening. The object of the meeting was to elect officers to serve for one year. Through invitation Marshal E. G. Through invitation Marshal E. G. Hitchcock was present at the meeting and was an interested spectator throughout. The meeting was called to order by the temporary chairman, W. J. Coelho, and J. H. Bolster was appointed temporary secretary. The nominations having been made the election was proceeded with and resulted as follows: President, Henry Smith: Vice-president. dent, Henry Smith; Vice-president, W. J. Coelho; Recording Secretary, Chas. Wilcox; Corresponding Secre-tary, Jas. H. Bolster; Financial Secre-tary, Jas. N. K. Keola; Treasurer, N. Fernandez; Marshal, I. H. Sher-wood; Executive Committee, Jas. H. Boyd, G. E. Boardman, Solomon Meheula, S. M. Kanakanui and Clarence L. Crabbe.

After the election the president proposed that a vote of thanks be accorded Marshal Hitchcock for his attendance at the meeting. The proposition was the sense of the meeting, and Mr. Hitchcock responded with a few remarks couched in the following terms:

My FRIENDS: I did not expect to be here to night. Having been invited to come here by Mr. Coelho, I have done so, and am well pleased to see such an organization as you present here to-night. I have read your constitution and by-laws and think the objects very good. It shows that Hawaii is progressive and it gives my heart great joy to see with what ability you have carried on this meeting. The legislative ability with which you have conducted the meeting surprised me. There is no government without the people, and as the president has said, the life of the organization will be in the attendance of members. I wish you every success.

Mr. Hitchcock's remarks were greeted with vociferous applause.

Mr. Smith moved that the appreciation of the association be recorded by the secretary and a vote of thanks be tendered Mr. Coelho, the promoter of the Institute. Passed unanimously. Mr. Coelho responded in a few appropriate remarks. The meeting adjourned at 9:30 o'clock. The installation will take place on the 19th inst.
